SAW INC. MAKES NEW HUMAN RESOURCES APPOINTMENT

Human resources generalist promoted from within SAW knows what it takes to serve special population

Maple Heights, OH — SAW Inc., leading provider of services for adults with developmental disabilities in Northeast Ohio, has appointed Nick Levine as human resource generalist. Levine brings experience working for the Cuyahoga County Board of Developmental Disabilities (CCBDD), as well as SAW Inc., to the position.

“Nick’s experience working with our population at the county level and here at SAW makes him well-suited for this position,” said Judy Carey, CEO of SAW Inc. “Having someone that understands the needs of and sensitivities around adults with developmental disabilities is important to serving our individuals and staff. Nick has proven his ability and desire to do so and we’re glad to be able to retain him at SAW while giving him an opportunity to advance in this role.”

Levine obtained his bachelor’s degree in political science/criminal justice from the University of Akron, and is expected to earn his master’s degree in human resource management & labor relations from Cleveland State University next spring. He has experience supervising, training and supporting adults with developmental disabilities participating in habilitation activities with employment at various corporate partners around Northeast Ohio. He brings project management, prospecting and networking, crisis management, conflict resolution and critical thinking skills to his new position.

“I’ve spent my entire career working with adults with developmental disabilities and I’m looking forward to incorporating the skills I’ve learned into my new role,” said Levine. “I appreciate the opportunity to remain with SAW while growing professionally along with such a great organization. “
