SAW, INC. ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBER

Maple Heights, OH — Solutions at Work (SAW, Inc.) is pleased to announce Jeff Pecon has been elected to its board of directors. As such, Pecon will help support the nonprofit's work to provide adults with developmental disabilities work, training and recreational opportunities that foster confidence, which leads to greater independence and improves the quality of life.

Pecon holds his bachelor's and master's degrees in engineering from Cleveland State University. His career span included managing the Rockwell Automation plant in Cleveland, as the chief operating officer of Cleveland Motion Controls and sales and marketing for Oracle,

"Jeff has a broad and deep appreciation of what makes organizations successful," says Judith Carey, CEO. "His problem-solving and consultative skills will be an asset to SAW."

"My greatest achievements have been derived from making and shaping decisions that improve and grow organizations," says Pecon. "I am grateful for the opportunity to strategically impact SAW, its mission, and the individuals it serves."

In addition to his work with SAW, Pecon also mentors Cleveland State University business students and serves on the advisory board of CSU. Also, an accomplished musician, his polka band is sure to be a SAW adult activities center favorite!

Pecon joins fellow SAW Board members: Tim Clemons, president, Randy Graham, vice president, Ellen Mindadeo, treasurer, The Honorable Dick Ambrose, secretary, Todd Barson, Russell Benghiat, Georgette Jackson, and Stacey McKinley.
