SAW, INC. ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBER

Maple Heights, OH — Solutions at Work (SAW, Inc.) is pleased to announce Elizabeth Sheehe has been elected to its board of directors. As such, Sheehe will help support the nonprofit's work to provide adults with developmental disabilities work, training and recreational opportunities that foster confidence, which leads to greater independence and improves the quality of life.

Sheehe is the former mayor and city council member of Vermillion, OH and former executive director of Leadership Lorain County. A trustee for the Westlake Porter Public Library and former trustee of Building Hope in the City, education on all levels is paramount to Sheehe.

"Ms. Sheehe is a standout leader in Northeast Ohio, says Judith Carey, CEO, SAW Inc. "Her leadership has transformed organizations and we are thrilled to have her bring her diverse nonprofit and public planning expertise and insight to our work."

With a degree in finance and economics from Ashland University and a Master of Public Administration from Cleveland State University, Sheehe has channeled her entire career to providing services to the people of Northeast Ohio.

"My lifelong mission has been to make positive change in our community," said Sheehe. "SAW Inc. fosters confidence, which leads to greater independence and improves the quality of life for all individuals served. As a SAW board member, my goal is to help provide more opportunities for these individuals who call Northeast Ohio home. With my knowledge of community and my passion for the greater good, I'm honored to be a part of this working board."

"We have worked to ensure our board and leadership represents a variety of experts," continued Carey. "The guiding principles of SAW are simple and straightforward. All individuals we serve want and deserve the opportunity to grow and develop in their efforts to reach their full potential. Our board members provide the strategic guidance that helps ensure SAW enrollees have the opportunity to work, create friendships and contribute to society by being involved and integrated in their community."

About SAW Inc.

SAW, Inc is a non-profit organization serving the needs of adults with developmental disabilities by offering vocational rehabilitation services, group employment, and several adult day-service facilities in Northeast Ohio. SAW improves the quality of life for its individuals by hiring and maintaining experienced and caring professionals, managing safe and welcoming facilities, and developing daily activity programs that help individuals thrive. As a trusted provider, SAW's unwavering commitment to adults with developmental disabilities and their families allows each participant to work toward achieving their full potential.
